Maharashtra CM Devendra Fadnavis Praises Lilavati Hospital and Mayo Clinic Collaboration

Mumbai, Maharashtra - Maharashtra Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis has expressed his admiration for the partnership between Mumbai's Lilavati Hospital and the Mayo Clinic from the United States. This collaboration is focused on a nursing training program that aims to enhance the healthcare sector and promote 'seva' or service to humanity.

Virtual Message from CM Fadnavis

In a virtual message during the 'Lilavati Initiative' program, CM Fadnavis stated, "Lilavati Hospital and Research Center, Mumbai and the world-renowned Mayo Clinic USA are collaborating for a nursing training program. This will not only open up a new journey in the healthcare sector but also towards the path of 'seva' to mankind."

He emphasized that the program will revolutionize nursing education and set new standards for patient care. Although he could not attend the event in person due to his participation in the World Economic Forum in Davos, he sent his best wishes, highlighting the significance of this initiative in Mumbai, a city known for its progress and innovation.

Deputy CM Eknath Shinde's Remarks

Maharashtra Deputy Chief Minister Eknath Shinde attended the program and commended Lilavati Hospital for its commitment to patient care. He noted the hospital's history since 1978 and its reputation for treating notable figures like Balasaheb Thackeray and actor Saif Ali Khan. Shinde praised the hospital's staff for their dedication to ensuring patient recovery and good health.
